Maritime Risk & Resilience Forum

EVENT DETAILS

Date: 25 November 2026

Venue: Watson Farley & Williams, London, UK

Theme: Understanding, Managing and Mitigating Risk Across the Shipping and Bunkering Value Chain

Format: A new one-day event bringing together senior experts from across shipping, bunkering, energy, finance and law to examine the risks shaping today's maritime market.

MRRF26 will look at how companies can identify, manage and reduce these risks while building stronger and more resilient businesses. Discussions will cover geopolitical and sanctions risk, legal and contractual exposure, counterparty and credit risk, insurance, fuel quality and claims, price volatility and hedging, as well as the growing role of AI.

Industry experts will share practical insight, real-world experience and strategies designed to protect businesses, improve governance and support better commercial decision-making in an increasingly unpredictable market.
